The Russian troops are being moved to the frontier in a concerted plan by Germany and Austria for united action in the event of war between the two powers. The Russian troops are being moved to the frontier in a concerted plan by Germany and Austria for united action in the event of war between the two powers.

WAIT AND SEE.—The National Gazette, discussing the Vienna Fremdenblatt's article relative to the massing of troops on the Russian frontier, says: "It is evident that the force of Russian troops in Poland is not sufficient to attack two formidable military powers. The present massing of troops is too small for war and too large for peace. We must wait and see how Russia will reconcile the massing with the pacific assurances of the journal de St. Petersburg."

A RUSSIAN HINT.—The Gazette says the policy of France will decide whether Germany will be compelled to wait one or both her frontiers. The paper declares that Russia must always have a strong fleet in the Pacific Ocean.

AN AUSTRIAN MILITARY COUNCIL.—Vienna, December 7.—Emperor Francis Joseph will preside at a military council which is to be held at the palace to-morrow for the purpose of considering what steps are necessary in view of the collection of Russian troops on the frontier.

LONDON, December 7.—Yesterday afternoon at the Bow Street Police Court application was made to Mr. Vaughan, by Mr. Stephenson, the firm of Messrs. Newman, Wilson & Co., No. 10 Cannon street, for a summons against Mr. Charles Bradlaugh, M. P., for wilful and corrupt perjury in stating that Lord Salisbury had provided checks for the promoters of the meetings held in Trafalgar square in 1886, and that he had seen them. The magistrate after hearing the application stated that Mr. Bradlaugh's evidence in the case of Messrs. Graham and Burns had not influenced him in the slightest degree, and that, therefore, even if Mr. Bradlaugh's statements were untrue he should decline to grant the summons. The parties then withdrew.

BY BALFOUR'S ORDER.—The removal of Lord Mayor Sullivan to the Tullamore Jail. Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

DUBLIN, December 7.—The removal of Lord Mayor Sullivan to the Tullamore Jail, which took place yesterday morning, is an act chargeable altogether to Mr. Balfour, as a letter from Mr. Sullivan's secretary proves that the removal has been effected by Mr. Balfour's personal order and not by the order of the Lord Mayor. A strong force of constabulary was present. The Lord Mayor was met by Father O'Reilly, Dr. Moorehead and others and had a hearty reception. He was conveyed in a carriage to the jail. The constabulary dispersed the people. The Lady Mayoress has gone down to Tullamore.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.—At the meeting of the Executive Committee of the National League yesterday Mr. F. H. Higgins, M. P., who was loudly cheered, reported that since the last meeting he had received £20 from the suppressed Milton Malby Branch, and £3,000 from America for the Irish Parliamentary fund. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 7.—After the presentation of various communications from heads of departments and the Court of Claims, Mr. Cullum remarked that the rule was that bills are introduced before committees are appointed, to have such bills laid on the table, and that created unnecessary work. He therefore moved that the Senate adjourn, but he withdrew the motion temporarily to permit Mr. Plumb to offer a resolution calling on the Commissioner of Agriculture to report on whether or not any person in the employment of that department making experiments as to the manufacture of sugar from sorghum had obtained or applied for a patent or patents connected with such manufacture. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Farwell asked his colleagues to withdraw his motion so as to allow him to introduce a bill to perpetuate the National bank system. Mr. Cullum declined, and at 12:20 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

RICHMOND, Va., December 7.—The General Assembly of Virginia met to-day at noon and organized by electing the Democratic caucus nominees. Gov. Lee's message contains many important suggestions relative to State matters. In view of the restoration of the United States Supreme Court building on the Virginia debt question, the Governor recommends the passage of a joint resolution suspending legal proceedings against the State for the coupons in payment of the taxes, as he was assured by authority that such action would be decided by the Supreme Court. He thinks that the bondholders consider this action a violation of the Constitution, and offers as the State can make based upon the surplus revenue to be applied to the payment of interest on the bonds of what the State considers her just debt.

A little clique got hold of it and hammered it from the closing price of yesterday, $1.40 to $1.20, which was the lowest point reached since Monday noon. At the time that they were offering large blocks and hammering the stock they were taking in all the outside stock that they could lay their hands on. Offerings finally ceased and the stock was bid up to $1.30. As 10 o'clock the market displayed unexpected strength. The two last night while descending the grade near Goddell's Station. AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT. OLYMPIA—Keene in "Hamlet." GRAND—Lost in New York. PROCTOR—Lillian Evans in "Our Angel." FORTY—Mixed Pickles. STANDARD—Nobody's Claim. CAMEO—Novelty Company. MATINEES TO-MORROW. CAMEO—Novelty Company.

The indications for twenty-four hours commencing at 3 p. m. to-day for Missouri are: Colder, generally fair weather, preceded in the southeast by rain; light to fresh variable winds, followed on Thursday by rising temperature.

HOW THE NEWS COMES. The telegraph service of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH on Sunday, December 4, contained 67,936 words received as follows: Words, 67,936. Special in office, 25,722. Leased wire, 12,900. By messenger, 9,093. Other sources, 10,221. Total, 67,936.

NO FAR, MR. THORNE has not been put on any of the congressional committees.

SHARP may find his $40,000 ball a Jacob's Ladder long enough to reach to a foreign country.

It is a bad year for the free-trade scarecrow. Something else will have to be tried as a substitute.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S boom is suffering from sluggishness. He should try the massage treatment on it.

The excellence of the President's message is attested by the way in which it is stirring up the war tariff menagerie.

It is much easier for a needle to go through the eye of a camel than it is for a millionaire boddler to go to the penitentiary.

MR. CLEVELAND'S political opponents may object to his message, but they cannot complain that it is made up of glittering generalities.

CONGRESS should not tamper with the suppressed negro vote. It would be invading the reserved rights of SHERMAN and FORAKER, who need all the suppressed votes in their little campaigns.

"IT WAS a good thing for SADI-CARNOT," says the New York Press, "that Brother BURCHARD was not on the ground when the election occurred." It is also a good thing for him that he steered clear of Little Rock Railroad bonds, and wrote no letters that should have been burned.

CONGRESSMAN O'NEILL is reported as saying: "I have some views upon economic questions and it is my opinion that 'we want to go—slow and careful in our revision of the tariff.' If tariff revision has not gone on slowly enough to suit Mr. O'NEILL's views it would be interesting to get his definition of slowness."

THE New York Tribune and the Chicago Tribune are in perfect harmony as to BLAINE, but wide apart as to the tariff, the former clamoring for a war tariff and the latter for free trade. It may not be wise to inform the discordant Blaine crowd that the country will accept neither one of their economic heresies.

THERE is not a word in the President's message that is not in strict accord with the promises of revenue reform in the last Republican platform. That message is no more a "free-trade screed" than were the revenue reform planks in the platforms of both parties. It asks nothing, urges nothing, but what both parties promised.

CHICAGO has recently been annexed suburban villages with a view of swelling the census population for 1890, and this thing has now gone so far that wolves are howling Chicago, all unaware that they are part of the population of a great city. It is now believed that counting wolves and Annaboo-Chicago has a larger population.

eat in the kitchen, while the bold, bad man who has made his way in the world by stealing horses is taken into the dining-room and honored with the run of the house. If the charge brought by the Patriot is true it is altogether a pretty how-do-for a Kansas town.

The two Tribunes are both ardently Republican and both ardently for BLAINE, but they differ widely in their views of what is Republican policy with reference to protection and monopolies generally. They differ also in another very important respect. The Chicago Tribune is the organ of an Illinois Republicanism that never fails to carry its State by a large majority. The New York Tribune is the organ of a New York Republicanism that is badly beaten in nearly every State election. While the New York Tribune accuses the President of devoting his message entirely to what is strictly a party issue between Republicans and Democrats, the Chicago Tribune is trying hard to show that the President is only stealing Republican thunder. A glance at the Republican platform will satisfy any one that if the Republican party, and especially the Blaine wing of it, succeeds at all in pulling itself together, it will have to rally around the Chicago Tribune and leave its New York namesake out in the cold.

The fact that the Pacific railroads have contributed to the more rapid development of a vast extent of country, is no refutation of Secretary LAMAR's censure of our land-grant policy. He admits that they have done much good and that the policy of aiding them at the time was a wise one. But nine-tenths of our people, in full view of all the benefits resulting from the construction of those roads, now agree with LAMAR that it would have been wiser to add them in some other way, instead of entering upon a system of land-grant legislation which has defeated the beneficent policy of distributing the public domain among the people and turned it over in vast tracts to speculators or to corporations in mortmain tenure. The Southern Pacific was built from California to Texas with private capital accumulated from the profits of the Central Pacific, and without the aid of a land grant. It would have been better for the roads and better for the country if every one of them had been built through land every acre of which was dedicated to homestead industry and occupation exclusively.

As it happens that a majority of the new School Board are Democrats we hear of some talk among outside Democrats about utilizing the opportunity for "a clean sweep" of all the places and patronage at the disposal of the Board, and the distribution of the same among the local Democratic "hustlers," whose lips are always puckered for some public test and whose palms are always itching for a grab at the spoils. But any such outcome would be a most outrageous breach of faith and perversion of the Citizens' movement. Only one member was elected as a Democrat. All the other Democrats were elected, not as Democrats, but as Citizens' candidates, pledged to keep party and politics out of the schools. They are, to a man, bound in honor to ignore the politics of the applicant, and to consider only his fitness for the position. If any man's politics be considered at all it should be so only with a view of so distributing favors among the fit men of both parties that neither party can complain that there is even an appearance of partiality in the administration of school affairs. It is of the utmost importance to the interest of the schools that the election of the non-partisan Citizens' ticket shall be vindicated as a triumph of reform, and not be exposed to public scorn as merely a successful fraud of the ward politicians, a low-down trick of unscrupulous boddlers and spoils-grabbers.
